WinSport extends closure of ski and snowboard hill through Sunday

CALGARY, Alta. – With Mother Nature’s frigid grip on the city continuing through the weekend, WinSport will extend the closure of the ski and snowboard hill at Canada Olympic Park through Sunday.

The closure is for the safety of our Team Members and guests.

Environment Canada is currently forecasting highs of -29C today, with Friday the coldest day of the week at -32C. Saturday’s forecasted high is -28C, while Sunday warms up only slightly at -25C. These temperatures are without factoring in the windchill.

Based on Monday’s current forecast of a balmy -2C, the hill will reopen on Monday at 11 a.m.

With changing weather conditions, guests are advised to visit winsport.ca for the latest updates.

About WinSport

The Calgary Olympic Development Association, which operates as WinSport, is a not-for-profit community-based organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park. Our vision is to be a world-leading centre for athletic development. We inspire human potential through the spirit of sport by introducing people to winter and mountain sports, helping them develop their skills and thereby igniting a passion for sport and lifelong learning. WinSport does not receive any direct government funding for our operations and we support our purpose by building on the legacy of the 1988 Winter Olympic Games and by delivering exceptional value and experiences to our guests.
